

Barry Eichengreen
Crisis Risk in Emerging Markets

Barry Eichengreen's project considers the determinants of sovereign credit ratings in EU member countries, focusing on the roles played by monetary union and domestic fiscal institutions (as a way of analyzing whether fiscal reform can compensate for any credit rating downgrades that might ensue on exit from the monetary union).